Announcement

30 September 2005

I am pleased to announce that effective September 6, 2005; Mr. Kenny Kam joined HumiSeal as Asia Technical Services Manager. Kenny will be based in Hong Kong and will be reporting directly to Jeff Sargeant, HumiSeal Technical Manager in Taunton.

Kenny is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin, with a BS degree in Chemical Engineering. He comes to Humiseal with eight years of chemical engineering experience. Most recently, Kenny was Product Development Engineer for Willtech Industries; conducting new product development, supervising their Quality Control laboratory and providing in-house and on site customer support. Prior to that Kenny spent four years with SAE Magnetics as Senior Engineer for silicone wafer fabrication processes. He is fluent in English, Cantonese and Mandarin.

Kenny's primary responsibilities will include:

- Provide technical, process and marketing support to customers and HumiSeal representatives and distributors throughout Asia regarding the selection and application of HumiSeal conformal coatings for the protection of electronic assemblies
- Provide on site support through regular visits to current and prospect customers
- Support local reps and distributors with technical presence at selected trade shows and seminars
- Monitor competitor activities and report all developments and trends
- Participate in global HumiSeal tech service conference calls and meetings
- Organize translation of literature into local languages for improved communication.

Kenny has spent the month of September at HumiSeal's Taunton, MA USA facility, getting extensive training on the HumiSeal product line and customer base; as well as traveling to HumiSeal customers throughout New England, NY, NJ and PA.

We are pleased to welcome Kenny to the HumiSeal team. He will serve an important role as a local champion of HumiSeal's conformal coating technology in Asia, a key growth area for our business. Kenny can be reached at (852) 94516434 or by email at asiatechsupport@humiseal.com.

Best Regards,

Jeff Sargeant
